At a recent DDO staff meeting [REDACTED] C/IMS, suggested that subject film, shown on NBC on 28 March 1978 and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] be used as a training film to be shown to DO case officer trainees and also to their wives if at all possible. I agree with this suggestion and recommend that you contact the Pictorial Services Branch of the Office of Central Reference, where I understand a copy of the tape is available. The film should be presented in a seminar-type situation permitting senior officers and, if at all possible their wives, to add perspective to the remarks by [REDACTED] and to place them in a proper overall context. Balanced comments are very definitely called for regarding the moral issues and frustrations which case officers and their wives must resolve. It also would provide a useful introduction to the supporting roles which wives play.
